SINCE 1952 • REICO.COM

The number one reason customers choose Reico – our people.

“Our designer was a dream in helping us choose cabinets and countertops for our project. She was very helpful when our budget went over, guiding us to make better choices to help us complete the job.”

Let us create an experience you can't help but talk about.

To create a great experience, it has to be more than a website, beautiful showrooms, one-stop shopping convenience, proven processes and the best operations and delivery service in the industry. To have every customer recommend us, we must have the best people. We do.

At Reico Kitchen & Bath we love to listen and find out about your dreams and ideas. Whether you are designing your custom dream kitchen or just flipping a house rental unit, you can be confident that our Reico team will make it an experience you will want to share with others.

Since 1952, it has been our goal to have every customer recommend us.

The more you know, the better your experience will be.

How long does it take to make selections and create a design? It typically takes a few appointments to finalize things. There are a lot of product and design decisions to make. Meetings can be in person or online.

How much do things cost? According to the National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA), an average of 33% of your total kitchen remodel costs will be in cabinets and hardware, followed by installation, appliances and countertops. The remaining costs go to tile backsplashes, fixtures, lighting, flooring and more. For comparison, bathrooms often see the highest percentage of cost in installation.

What happens after the contract is signed? Congratulations! You've made all your decisions and signed off. Now...time to wait. Unless you are buying in stock cabinets, lead times can range from as little as 2 weeks to as many as 8-10 weeks based on the type of cabinet you choose. We will keep you updated the entire time and before you know it we will be scheduling delivery and the installation of your project.

When will my delivery come and will it be on your trucks? We use our own trucks and drivers on all deliveries except countertops, which are delivered by the fabricator. Our team is the best in the industry, offering you delivery notifications the day before and morning of your delivery. We'll then update you one hour before the delivery, all so you can plan your time without losing the whole day.
